Husbands' Club.

The Husbands' Club met last evening with Dr. and Mrs. G. H. McKenney at their residence on North Washington street and enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The rooms for play were decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

Five Hundred was the game for the evening.

A delicious luncheon was served after which floors were leaved and all made merry in dancing.

Mrs. McKenney sang a very beautiful song entitled "Love Me and the World is Mine."

Those who were so delightfully entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Dings, Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Sinks, Mrs. Collier and Mr. Roy Johnson.

Miss Stone Will Lecture.

On Monday afternoon at the Broadway Methodist church, Miss Ellen M. Stone will give a lecture under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

Miss Stone will be remembered by the public as the missionary who was captured by the Armenian bandits and held in the mountains for seven weeks until an immense ransom was paid.

Her lecture is a most interesting one.

There will be no charge for admission, but a free will offering will be taken.

The Bridge Whist Club play tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Moran Scott.

Mrs. William Pfeiffer begins tomorrow a series of parties at her home in McElish Place. Tomorrow Forty-two will be the game for diversion.

Dr. and Mrs. Potter and Miss Lula Potter of Kansas City, who have been visiting Mrs. H. C. Potter, leave tomorrow for Houston, Texas, where they will make a short visit before leaving for an extended tour of Old Mexico.

ERT O. SWOR AND FRANKEL WOOD, AS SHERLOCK HOLMES AND DOCTOR WATSON, IN THE SENSATIONAL OPERATIC SUCCESS "THE RED MILL," AT THE ROBISON OPERA HOUSE FRIDAY, JAN. 28TH.

We believe that a kind-hearted population will regret the great misfortune which overtook a Collin county farmer the other day. His mule ran away and the shaking up his vehicle received broke two dozen eggs. Truly wealth has wings.

Mrs. R. D. Sangster and Mrs. William T. Quinlan have issued invitations for a bridge which they will give Friday, January 28, for Mrs. Quinn and the Misses Quinn and Hobson—Muskogee Phoenix.

A New York judge holds that a man away from home forty-eight hours must tell his wife where he was. The decision ought to encourage men to cut down their periods of absence to forty-seven hours and a half.

"THE RED MILL."

The sale of seats for "The Red Mill," which opened this morning indicates that the engagement here is surely to be a record breaker. All parts of the theater were eagerly sought for and this clearly demonstrates the popularity of the attraction. That society will be represented in force is evident, as box reservations have been made by Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr.

and Mrs. John Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Gull'ot, and many others, while choice seats have been secured by Mr. Ray Poland, Mr. Harry Stonum, Mr. P. B. Adams, Mr. Val Mullen, Dr. Hill, Mr. Arthur Kyle. All in all, "The Red Mill" is bound to be reviewed by one of the most fashionable and critical audiences ever assembled at a theatrical performance here. Special orchestra carried by company. Curtain promptly at 8 o'clock.
